	Personal allowance: all UK taxpayers whose income exceeds GBP100,000 in any tax year, will lose their personal allowance at the rate of GBP1 for every GBP2 over the GBP100,000 threshold, which increases their effective tax rate. The personal allowance may be adjusted for individual taxpayers on a case by case basis to reflect their personal tax position. Student loan and postgraduate loan deductions: income from share or cash-based awards may be subject to deductions in relation to compulsory repayment of student and postgraduate loans through the 'Pay As You Earn' (PAYE) withholding system. The timing and amount of the repayment will depend on each individual's repayment plan (which is based on the date they started their university course, the type of course and their UK country of residence). The repayment rate is currently 9% for a student loan and 6% for a postgraduate loan (2025/26) above the applicable earnings threshold. For employees, such repayments will generally be collected through PAYE withholding.
